EXPERIENCE
the Isabis Get-Away!

Situated in the catchment area of the Gaub River, a sidearm of the Kuiseb, the ISABIS 4x4 trail stretches along the mountainous part of the Namib escarpment on the farm Isabis. The visitor will enjoy uninterrupted views and spectacular mountains and gorges. The trail has an undeniable appeal and character all of its own.

Location:

ISABIS 4x4 trail is located in the Gamsberg region approximately 120km by road south-west of Windhoek.

Camping:

Experience the atmosphere of camping outdoors at a beautifully selected spot in a river bed between rugged mountains. A flush toilet with a view and hot showers are available. Bring your own food, tent and equipment.

Travel Directions:

Travel south-west leaving Windhoek along Mandume Ndemufayo Road towards the Kupferberg Pass (C26). After 38kms turn left towards Walvisbay via the Gamsberg Pass (still on C26). Continue for 74kms till you turn south at D1265 towards Nauchas, Rehoboth and Solitaire. Travel 15km to the Isabis farm turn-off (signposted on the right).

Cost:

N$250 p/person p/day plus N$100 per vehicle.
Water and firewood are provided at no extra charge.
Children under 12yrs go free.
Payment to be made with bookings.
